Replies received

- Requests from clients: most Centres do receive requests and are in a position to meet them
- Access to an OSH library: most Centres do provide access
- Number of visitors: varies greatly
- Publication of a Newsletter: most Centres do
- Production of publications: most Centres do
- Training activities: most Centres do
- Website and number of hits: some do not have a functional website, but are in the process of setting up one; number of hits varies greatly in Centres compiling figures
- Cooperation with tripartite constituents: most Centres do
- Databases on OSH: most Centres do (in some instances, limited to internal access)
- Participation in World Day: most Centres do
- Other types of activities
Other types of activities:

- Educational and training activities:
  Most Centres offer training programmes, including online; webinars; some mobile training units

- Participation in the World Day:
  some countries find interesting solutions by involving multinationals to produce material; distribution of awards; translation of ILO material into local languages; some countries organize vaccination campaigns around World Day

- International Cooperation in particular Centres involved in research activities
